Another Key Newsletter To Know About

In January our Board of Evangelism attended a School of Outreach in Sturgeon Bay. The School of Outreach is a three day WELS workshop to teach congregations and church members how to “reach out” to people with the gospel of Jesus. One of the great ideas we took away from the School of Outreach is to send an “Outreach Newsletter” to our unchurched prospects every month. It’s easy for us to send out these monthly devotions because our synod has done the work for us.

The WELS Commission on Evangelism assigns pastors who attended the School of Outreach to each write for one particular month. These devotions are compiled and put on a CD that is sent to every congregation that orders one. We have the ‘08 CD at Trinity and have been mailing the devotions to our prospects for a few months already. What can you do? Help us expand our prospect list. Anyone you know that lives in our area but does not attend church would be a prospect. Anyone you know who is not a member of a Christian church would be a prospect. The person could be your friend, family member, or anyone you’re acquainted with. Please, talk to him or her and see if they would like to join us in worshipping the Lord at church. And then please give us this person’s address so we can send them a monthly newsletter, to build up their faith, and encourage them to join us in worship.

For those of you who really like reading, and are curious what these outreach newsletters are all about, on the next page I’ve included the article that I was assigned to write for October, 2009. May the Lord bless our efforts to seek the lost!

Pastor Gregory Pope

The crowd rebuked them and told them to be quiet, but they shouted all the louder, "Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!" Jesus had compassion on them and touched their eyes. Immediately they received their sight and followed him." (Matthew 20:31,34).

They were sitting by the side of the road, these two blind men. Perhaps they heard children laughing, but wished to see their faces. They felt the gentle warmth of the setting sun, but wished to take in the colors. They wanted to see. Today, someone was coming. Help, at last! They cried out eagerly. "Be quiet!" shouted the heartless crowd.

Each of us is like these two blind men. We all endure afflictions that make our lives harder. Conflict in a relationship, troubles at work, a health woe, a flaw in our personality we wish we could get rid of. You know what causes you pain. Our nagging burdens never seem to leave us alone. And people add salt to our wounds. They speak cruel words, or are harsh with indifference. Even the dearest people in our lives do not always understand the personal struggles we endure. So we can feel like we're all alone.

Then, out of the darkness of our sufferings comes a gentle touch. It's the touch of Jesus, a touch of compassion. For he too has cried and sighed in this world. He is as human as we are. But Jesus' touch does more than console. It heals. He simply touched the eyes of those two blind men and they could instantly see. A miracle!

Could there be any joy greater than having your darkness turned to light? The whole world was opened up to those blind men. So many new things they could see and do.

Likewise, Jesus touches us. He shows us our daily afflictions come from our root affliction. We are sinners living in a sinful world. We are sinners estranged from our God, sinners who don't see any way out of our problems. Just when we realize our spiritual blindness, Jesus touches us with sight. He opens our eyes to see him. He took the pitch-black darkness of the cross for us, in our place. By Jesus' death he paid for our sins, and reconciled us to our God, his Father. Then he rose to prove that we are saved.

Behold the precious sight. Jesus is our Savior! Our joy now is seeing blessing even in the midst of our pain, because our loving Savior will carry us through good times and bad. He will finally bring us by his grace into his eternal heaven. Till then, he touches us with faith, so we can see a whole world of ways to thank him for his mercy in our lives.

We encourage you to receive Jesus' healing touch on a regular basis. Come join us on Sunday mornings!

Our Church President's Message will return next month.

News from the WELS

Mueller and Kruschel return to their roots

From the office of President Mark Schroeder

This month we are bidding farewell to two faithful servants here at the Synod Administration Building. Wayne Mueller, the synod's first vice president, has accepted a call to serve as pastor at St. John, Jefferson, Wisconsin. Peter Kruschel, administrator of the Board for Ministerial Education, will be leaving to begin his duties as a mission counselor in the Arizona-California and Pacific Northwest Districts.

Both men have served their synod faithfully in their calls. After leaving the parish ministry, Wayne Mueller served as a professor at Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary. Following that he was the first administrator of the Board for Parish Services. Most recently, he has served as the synod's first vice president (also called the vice president for mission and ministry). By accepting the call to St. John, Pastor Mueller is returning to his roots and to what is his first love: the work of a parish pastor. Pastor Mueller's fondness for the pastoral ministry was a frequent topic of his conversations. His ability to communicate complex theological truth in clear, understandable ways will serve his congregation well as he preaches, conducts Bible class, and instructs people new to the faith.

Peter Kruschel returns to his roots in a different way. Although he began his ministry in an established urban congregation (Grace, Milwaukee), he accepted a call to serve in a home mission setting in Orlando, Florida. There he developed a genuine love for the work of home missions. His leadership skills and passion for home missions were widely recognized, and he was called to serve as the assistant administrator of the Board for Home Missions. Now, after serving for seven years as the administrator of the Board for Ministerial Education, Pastor Kruschel is also returning to his roots in the home mission field.

The Board for Ministerial Education will be calling a new administrator at its October meeting; nominations for the position are currently being sought. The office of first vice president will remain vacant until a new vice president is elected at next summer's synod convention. In the meantime, Pastor Mueller's duties are being delegated to others.

We are thankful for the time that these two faithful servants spent serving their synod in various capacities. As they return to their ministerial roots, we are thankful that God will continue to use them to proclaim his gospel and to serve his church.

Serving in Christ,
Mark Schroeder

Committee finishes assessing aid in Africa

After meeting with almost three-quarters of the national pastors of the Lutheran Church of Central Africa (LCCA), visiting 14 congregations in Malawi and Zambia, and talking with WELS missionaries in the region, the WELS Humanitarian Aid Committee concluded its two-week assessment of committee-funded humanitarian aid projects in Africa. Committee members were encouraged to see the impact that projects like bore holes (deep wells), literacy lessons, study centers, and home-based health care and education have had on communities.

"We wanted to find new opportunities, to see what's going well, and determine what needs to change," says Rev. David Valleskey, committee chairman. "We found that in some cases, but not all, our gifts for humanitarian aid are being used as we pray they will be used: to help 'build bridges' that facilitate a proclamation of the gospel to people. We also came to understand much better the unique needs and opportunities for humanitarian aid in Zambia and Malawi."

Valleskey says one of the needs is for more direct contact between the LCCA and the Humanitarian Aid Committee as the national church is taking on more responsibility. "Up to this time we have worked with the missionaries," says Valleskey. "In the future, the committee will be working more directly with the national church. The meetings we had with the church leaders in Zambia and Malawi will help greatly with this transition."

The group also visited local congregations in the bush and joined with them in worship and fellowship. "Many people commit long hours to reaching people in the cities, villages, and bush country with the gospel of Jesus Christ," says Staff Minister Tom Hering, a member of the committee. "Those we met looked us in the eye and offered words of thanks for all that is done to help them. May the Holy Spirit, who is working through Word and sacrament in Africa, also work in our lives as we grow in faith and as we share this good news with others."

Mixed news in latest financial report

The latest Executive Summary—prepared by WELS' chief financial officer for the Synodical Council and the Conference of Presidents—shows mixed news for the synod's operating budget the first month into a new fiscal year.

Mr. Todd Poppe, chief financial officer, reports that support in July 2008 was $300,000 less than expenses—not unexpected since July tends to be one of the lowest support months. But Poppe says developing negative trends in two key support sources—gifts from congregations known as Congregation Mission Offerings (CMO) and gifts from individuals—need to be closely monitored.

CMO in July were off $50,000 from July 2007 and gifts from individuals were off $400,000. Total CMO receipts for June and July were down 9 percent and 2.5 percent, respectively, from the same months in 2007, but CMO receipts for the 2008 calendar year are up 3.1 percent over the same period last year thanks to greater-than-projected giving earlier in the year.

"Please join me in prayer, giving thanks for the support congregations and members provided the last twelve months," Poppe says, "and pray that they increase their support for the work we do together."

Retreats strengthen, enrich marriages

In an effort to build up and strengthen the marriages of couples throughout WELS, the Commission on Adult Discipleship is again offering marriage enrichment and get-away weekends throughout the United States, beginning in September. Although Rev. David Kehl, administrator of Adult Discipleship, anticipates there will be repeat attendees, he hopes to recruit new participants and increase the attendance of called workers.

"I would say our main audience really is all the married families of our synod, and that includes called workers," says Kehl. "We want to encourage called workers to strengthen their marriages because they are challenged with things just as much as any other couple. And if their marriages are strong, it's going to have a positive impact on their ministry."

Ten retreats have been scheduled in several states and will focus on the theme "Intimate Allies." "In so many marriages, people just tear each other down and set high expectations of what they think someone should be," says Kehl. Through these retreats, he says, people will learn to glorify God through their marriage and help their spouse see that they are created in the image of Christ.

Kehl says past retreats have drawn more than 100 couples—but more important than numbers is what people take away from these workshops. "The neatest thing is when a couple understands something more about their relationship and is excited to grow in that area or to live it out," he says. "We just want to build up marriages as strong as they can be, because that's a key thing for the health of our families, which is the health of our congregations, our districts, and our synod."

The Bible-Book of Ruth

This month's part of the Bible focus' is on the Book of Ruth

GENERAL FACTS ABOUT THE BOOK OF RUTH

Ruth is a short book of only 4 chapters. The book gets its name from the main character of the book, Ruth from Moab. We do not know who wrote the book. In contrast to the moral decay and constant war recorded in Judges, the Book of Ruth is a beautiful story of love and faith. The story of Ruth takes place at the time when the judges ruled in Israel.

THE PURPOSE OF THE BOOK

We could say that the Book of Ruth has at least three purposes: 1) The first purpose is to trace the ancestry of David to the Moabitess, Ruth. (Ruth was the great-grandmother of King David.) 2) The second purpose is to give us an example of unselfishness and devotion in the person of Ruth. 3) A third purpose is to show that the true religion belongs to the people of all nations. (As a Moabitess, Ruth was a non-Jewish believer.)

AN OUTLINE FOR THE BOOK OF RUTH:

1. Ruth Comes To Bethlehem (1)
2. Ruth Meets Boaz (2)
3. Ruth's Appeal To Boaz (3)
4. The Marriage of Ruth and Boaz (4)

Announcements

This year's Trinity Liberty's Luau VBS - "Come Celebrate Jesus!" was a huge success! It may have been the biggest attendance we've ever had. We had 43 kids on the first day, and 42 kids on the second day, and 38 kids on the third day. (To put this into perspective we usually see 27-30). We had 21 kids come back on Sunday to sing for church on Sunday! We thank everyone who helped out and those who donated items for snacks! The kids got a chance to listen to Pastor's devotions each day, sing some songs, play games, and do crafts. Each child got their own T-shirt to have signed by everyone and wear that Sunday. Fun was had by everyone!

Remember Sunday School starts Sunday Sept.7th.

Public worship is certainly our prime time for spiritual growth. But, again, don't forget the wonderful bonus of dedicated Bible study. Another year of digging into God's Word and gaining power for our lives is about to begin! Adult Bible class starts September 14th.

In adult Bible Class, we are planning to look at world religions and cults of today, to see how they differ from the true faith we have through Scripture.

You're free to either listen in or join in the discussion. Everyone is welcome!

Trinity Ladies Circle – Upcoming Meeting & Garden Walk

The Trinity Ladies Circle will meet Tuesday, September 23 at 6pm in the church basement. At this meeting we will view an LWMS CD, talk about possibly having an Advent Service for the ladies of the congregation and discuss giving a donation to Befriend a Mission. All confirmed ladies of Trinity Congregation are welcome to attend the meeting or join the group.

Garden Walk – Saturday, September 27 at 10am.

All ladies of the congregation are invited to join the Trinity Ladies Circle on a garden walk. We will visit the West of the Lake Gardens and the hospital garden. Both gardens are located on Memorial Drive. After the walk we will go for lunch. We will meet at 10am by the Holiday Inn/Perkins park and ride in Manitowoc. Hope you can join us.

Youth Group

The Youth Group met on August 12 for the first Adopt - A - Highway clean up that we decided to participate in for a community service project. It was a perfect day to collect the trash littered on Highway C, from Highway 42 to Nagel Road. We met at Anthony Matznick's residence (Uriah & Tabitha's dad), watched the short video on the guidelines, then headed out. We collected six bags of garbage and one bag each of aluminum cans / other recyclables. After all the hard work, we ate Papa John's pizza. The overall consensus of the group - PLEASE DO NOT LITTER! You would not believe some of the stuff that people would throw out the window! The crew included: Pastor Pope, Polly Bonfigt, Uriah Matznick, his friend Cody, Trisha Peterson and Kalie Knutson. Thank you all for the help in cleaning God's beautiful country!

Our next date for the Youth Group's Adopt - A - Highway clean up is Saturday, September 13, 2008. Come out and pitch in to help keep God's country beautiful! You will be treated to pizza after for all your hard work.

The youth would like to sponsor a cabin again this year for Christmas at Sinawa. We are looking for some ideas on what our theme should be. Once we have the theme, we need to come up with ideas and start planning for it. If anyone has any ideas, let us know.

Our next Youth Group meeting is October 15th, at 6:15, to discuss such things as a possible laser tag or paintball outing.

Fellowship Update

The Brewer Game was a big hit again this year with 46 people going down to see the Brewers take on the Cincinnati Reds on July 13. It was a great time watching the new Brewers pitcher C.C. Sabatha take the mound for a Sunday afternoon game. The weather was great and the game was sold out but we had great seats by first base line and we all got to see the Brewers win against the Cincinnati Reds. It was a great day all the way around with a pleasant bus ride down, and the driver was good at getting us to and from the stadium in good time with all the construction in Milwaukee. It's a nice way to go to the game without any worries. We look forward to doing it again next year. Thanks to everyone who helped out with the event and to everyone for coming

A letter from Wisconsin Lutheran Child & Family Service

During this season of vacations, we thank you for taking the time to remember the needs of God's people. Your gift of love has enabled us to help so many troubled families, individuals in crisis, seniors dealing with health concerns as they age. We at WLCFS are committed to our mission of providing compassionate, Christian care to people in all stages of life and we have been carrying out that mission, by God's grace, for 43 years.

How do we accomplish this valuable mission? Only with the ongoing, faithful support of caring, Christian people like people you-people who recognize Jesus' calling in this world of sin and trouble. In a world that is increasingly self-serving, it is truly a joy for all of us at WLCFS to be encouraged and inspired by the caring love shown by your gift. May God bless you for your gifts of love.

Pastor James A Mattek Chief Executive Officer

Friends of the Seminary

"You are invited to attend Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary's annual Friends of the Seminary Day on Saturday, October 4, 2008. Registration and coffee hour will begin at 8:00 a.m. in the auditorium followed by worship with the seminary chorus at 9:00 a.m. This year's mission speakers will be Professor James and Jean Korthals and senior Noah Bater. A light lunch, included in the $10.00 registration fee, will be served at 12:00 p.m. Guided tours of the campus will be available following. Please send your name, address, telephone number, and home congregation along with your registration fee to the attention of Lori Guse at 11831 N. Seminary Drive, Mequon, WI, 53092, no later than September 19th. For more information please contact Lori Guse at 262.242.8104 or by e-mail at gusel@wls.wels.net."
